

Sound Healing Individual Session

with

Christine Morrison

Musical Alchemist, Sound Healer, Composer, Teacher
A.Mus.A(piano) B.Ed

Bringing your body, mind & soul into harmony and rhythm with nature and the Divine.

Great for releasing any physical or emotional pain, bringing you to a space of inner peace, calm and wholeness.

A sacred space is created for you to gently release any tension or stress that you have unknowingly been holding onto.

Drawing on a variety of Sound, Music and Colour techniques, Christine uses her voice, ancient instruments, sacred geometry and the elements of nature to align and attune you with the higher vibrations of our new earth, and into the multi-dimensional being that you are.

Christine has the ability to tune into your soul at a depth that is indescribable, enabling you to release all that doesn't serve you. She lovingly guides you to embrace your brilliance, anchoring it in every cell of your body, bringing you into alignment with your purpose.

In our ever changing world, our bodies need to be recalibrated and rejuvenated to align with the high vibrational transformations occurring during this wondrous period of ascension.

As Christine sings your soul's truth, you activate your remembering of who you are, and what your purpose is for this lifetime. As you experience your sounds, you easily release the old, embracing the new authentic you, fully anchoring your whole being into this world.
